

DIGITAL EDUCATIONAL CONCERTS SPRING 2021

FAQ SHEET

DIGITAL CONCERTS THIS YEAR

This year the Valley Symphony Orchestra will be delivering the education concerts virtually and on-demand. With the continuing public health challenges that accompany Covid-19, it is the safest and most engaging way to proceed for 2021. We hope that schools will join us for this year's concert as there is a unique opportunity for this concert to reach many more students under a virtual model.

The VSO will make a 30-minute Educational Concert Program available to students valley-wide all online. The program will be hosted by Maestro Peter Dabrowski featuring music selections that highlight each section of the orchestra. The Maestro will share remarks on the music theory, instrumentation, and other musical concepts illustrated by the concerts - which will also come with an educator's preparatory guide. Visit www.valleyorchestra.org for more information.

REPERTOIRE

The Maestro has curated an engaging program that will provide a tour of the entire symphony through dynamic chamber performances:

- Ernő Dohnányi — Piano Quintet No. 1 in C-Minor, Op. 1 – I. Allegro
- Leopold Godovsky — Triakontameron – Old Vienna
- Francis Poulenc — Sextet for Woodwind and Piano, Op. 100 – II. Divertissement
- Dave Hall — Escape Velocity
- Jan Koetsier — Brass Quintet, Op. 65 – III. Molto Vivace

The state of the art video production of this program allows students to see the performances up-close and in-action.
